Event Report

Chess Competition held at RBVRR Womens College Of Pharmacy, Barkathpura, Hyderabad on 25 th September 2021. The event aimed to provide an opportunity for chess enthusiasts and skill levels to compete in a friendly yet competitive environment, fostering a spirit of sportsmanship and strategic thinking. The competition followed a Swiss-system tournament format, allowing participants to play multiple rounds against opponents with similar performance levels. Each player competed in a predetermined number of rounds, with the winners determined by accumulated points or tie-breakers in case of equal scores.

Standard time controls were applied for each round, with each player allotted a specific amount of time to make their moves. The Chess Competition provided an engaging platform for chess enthusiasts to showcase their skills, learn from each other, and enjoy the thrill of competitive play. Participants demonstrated strategic thinking, concentration, and resilience throughout the tournament, embodying the essence of the game. The event exemplified the inclusive and empowering environment of the girls' college, where every student had the opportunity to excel in sports. Kabaddi is a sport that demands strength, agility, and endurance, and participants showcased these qualities throughout the competition. Teamwork, strategic planning demonstrated remarkable coordination and communication on the field. The competition fostered a supportive and encouraging atmosphere, with teammates rallying behind each other and cheering on their peers from the sidelines. Spectators added to the excitement, cheering for their favorite teams and fueling the energy of the matches with their enthusiastic support. Their dedication and passion for the sport have set a shining example for their peers and earned them well-deserved recognition and applause.

We extend our gratitude to all the participants, organizers, sponsors, and volunteers who contributed to the success of this event.

Event Report

Traditional Day Celebrations held at RBVRR Womens College Of Pharmacy, Barkathpura, Hyderabad on 7th January 2022. It was a vibrant and joyous event, bringing together participants from diverse backgrounds to celebrate and showcase traditional Indian culture. The event featured a range of traditional activities, including Rangoli making, Antakshari, Dumb Charades, monoaction, fashion show and Mehendi competitions. This report provides an overview of the event proceedings and highlights the key activities and outcomes.

The Rangoli competition was a visual spectacle, with participants showcasing their creativity and artistic skills through intricate designs made of colored powders and flower petals. Participants crafted beautiful patterns inspired by traditional motifs, religious symbols, and natural elements. The vibrant colors and intricate patterns added to the festive ambiance of the event. The Antakshari singing competition brought together music enthusiasts who showcased their vocal talents and knowledge of Indian melodies. Participants engaged in friendly competition, taking turns to sing verses from popular songs and challenging their opponents. The lively atmosphere resonated with melodious tunes and infectious laughter as participants and spectators joined in the musical revelry. The Dumb Charades game provided an opportunity for participants to showcase their acting prowess and guessing skills. Teams enacted scenes from popular movies, songs, and phrases while their teammates tried to guess the correct answer within a time limit. The game elicited cheers and applause from the audience as participants demonstrated creativity and improvisation in their performances. The Mehendi competition celebrated the ancient art of henna tattooing, with participants showcasing intricate designs on their hands and arms. Artists demonstrated precision and dexterity as they adorned their designs with floral motifs, geometric patterns, and traditional motifs. The competition showcased the rich cultural heritage of Mehendi artistry and provided a platform for participants to display their creativity. The event served as a reminder of the rich cultural heritage that continues to inspire and unite us all.
