Tracking is only available in PharmSci 360 session rooms and the Solution Center; the tags do not record other movements nor broadcast any information. Your contact information is always protected and never shared. If you don’t want to participate, please inform our registration team on-site in Washington, D.C.

Some consulates may have backlogs in scheduling visa interviews, therefore applicants should first contact the consulate to find out how long the wait is for an interview. Should an individual’s visa request be denied, AAPS will provide a full refund. Registrants should email aaps@experient-inc.com and provide documentation in order for the full refund to be processed.

Further information on business visas can be found at the DOS Business Visa Center Website and at the IVO website.

Please note that AAPS is not affiliated with and has no relationship with the U.S. International Visitors Office. The information above regarding visa delays is the suggested process by IVO.
