EDITORIAL.....

Editorial committee takes the great pleasure to bring the second issue of SUDITHI-2K18 newsletter of RBVRR Women's College Of Pharmacy. The current newsletter highlights the college events, activities of our students and the achievements of faculty during the past one year. The intent of SUDITHI is to disseminate information about our Institute and we hope that the readers find the issues informative and useful. We are thankful to the Management, Principal, faculty and staff and students of RBVRRWCP for their valuable inputs, and we welcome suggestions and feedback that will help us improve further. We like to follow this good practice and let the journey of SUDITHI continues....

WHY SUDITHI.....

“Enlightening the universe with Pharmacy and innovations”

*“SUDITHI” is a Sanskrit word which means, “to shine with a bright light”.*It's an old custom in Indian culture to ignite a 'deepak' as a sign of goodness whenever we start something new. This is because a flame always rises and shows us the path in darkness with a bright light. SUDITHI symbolizes that RBVRR will rise up and touch the zenith. It will be a torchbearer for other educational institutes and will enlighten the path to end darkness that still prevails in the society. Prajwalam will be a good luck charm for this institute, its scholars, its faculty, and most importantly, the nation.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.
